

Plaza Lanes is proud to announce its 2011-2012 Youth Bowling Program for the youth of our community.

Bowling is a participant sport and every child, regardless of size, sex or physical handicap can compete on an equal basis. Children learn sportsmanship and the responsibility of being a team member in a competitive sport. Bowling has now become a letter sport in the Des Moines area. College scholarship tournaments and the Grand Prix Scholarship Program which costs only $6.00 per year to join.

Trained and certified coaches help the young bowlers with the basic and advanced fundamentals of the sport.

Upon joining your new youth league, you will become a member of the USBC (United States Bowling Congress).

There is a $17.00 USBC membership fee (Bumper Bowlers excluded) making you eligible to earn awards, medals and emblems for your various bowling achievements throughout the season.

All youth league bowlers will receive a free bowling shirt.
